EVANGELISM

Chanka (Ethiopia)
March 2016

Dear friends,

from 2 to 6 March we were in Chanka, nearly 600 kilometres west of the capital Addis Ababa. Four churches had jointly organized an evangelistic outreach. For five days we had hardly any electricity, no running water and only a bush toilet. Moreover, it was very, very hot.

Since there had recently been rioting in Chanka in which people from the village had died, the authorities demanded that we finish our meetings at 6pm. So we had to start the meetings in the early afternoon, in the great heat, so as to be finished in time.

It was the first evangelistic outreach in Chanka and I was the first white preacher to go there. We again experienced wonderful meetings and a great hunger for God's word among the people.

On Sunday morning a deaf-mute woman was healed. She came onto the stage and gave her testimony as well as she could. She still has to learn how to speak. A Christian from the village met this girl at a mill where the inhabitants go to have their grain ground. She took the deaf-mute girl with her to the outreach so that she could be healed.

A mother brought her son, who had lost his mind 18 years ago and whom she had often bound with chains or ropes. He became normal and showed us the scars and wounds that had been left by the chains and ropes. Many others testified to their healing.

We have the next outreach in the same area very soon: from 23 to 27 March. Also planned was a priests' seminar for 120 Orthodox priests. Unfortunately, we have had to postpone the seminar for financial reasons.

I would like to thank everyone who supports us in prayer or financially. Without your help it would not be possible. Many, many thanks and may God repay you for it richly, whether in the form of finances, health, wisdom or whatever is needed.

Thank you very much indeed and I wish you God's abundant blessing,

Ekkehard Hornburg

This young woman had been deaf and mute since her childhood. She could not hear anything nor speak. Someone brought her to the meeting and Jesus healed her. She still has to learn how to speak.

She had been suffering from high blood pressure for eight years. The doctor confirmed her healing.

He had suffered from epilepsy since childhood.

For 20 years he had suffered from headaches and backache and had kidney disease.

For 18 years she had suffered from severe backache. Now she is free of pain.

The growth the size of a fist on his stomach has disappeared.

He had suffered from asthma for 13 years. Healed!

He could only see blurred images. Now he can see well again.

Her left eye had been blind for four years.

His right eye was almost blind and was healed.

For 18 years he had been mad and was often bound with ropes or chains. His arms show the traces of the fetters. Jesus set him free and he became normal.

Powers of darkness active as day of wrath draws near

A prophetic word by Gordon Lindsay

Prove me saith the Lord. Press into My presence for the powers of darkness are against you. But I say unto you that if you press into My presence I will prove to you that I am God. I hold the heavens and the earth and all those things that are therein, even the souls of man in My hand. I will send you forth with great victory and you shall not fear, for the voice of the Lord divides the flames of fire. Yea, the voice of the Lord crumbles the nations and the kingdoms of this world. It causes kings and princes and rulers to fall down at His feet. He causes the nations to tremble before Him.

You shall pray for all nations and all kingdoms. But you shall not pray against my will. You shall pray for My work to come and My Kingdom to come. But you shall not pray against My word that I send forth to destroy those who are destroying my people. For My judgments must be in the earth. Because when the earth is filled with my judgments, then the people shall learn righteousness. I know you can withstand My judgments for a little while. I would have you to pray this: That I may send forth My mercy and not My wrath. But the hour will come when you cannot pray this way. And you cannot pray My wrath away, for My wrath will come – even though men are saying today that I am a God of mercy and love. I will show this world that I am also a God of wrath. In a time when sin shall increase and destroy many people, I shall speak forth the word of judgment and wrath. I will send a great storm on the people to destroy them, and you shall not pray against it.

In the time of My great wrath you will not need to reach Me, because you will not be here. If you are obedient to Me, you shall be caught away into the realms of bliss and glory. Some who are left will pray, but their prayers shall not be heard. I am seeking you to pray now. I have send forth My word to you at this hour. I am the Good Shepherd Who comes seeking people who will pray. I am seeking My sheep who have gone astray. Through prayer you shall reach out and help turn the minds of My people back to My house, back to My service, back to My Word and back to Myself.
